HISTORY · National Movement III: Gandhi, Non-Cooperation and Civil Disobedience

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? From 1917 Mahatma Gandhi turned the national movement into a mass struggle of peasants, workers, women and students. His method was satyagraha: non-violent resistance to unjust laws, accepting punishment without hatred, to change the opponent's heart. He led three all-India movements; this day covers the first two: Non-Cooperation (1920–22) and Civil Disobedience (1930–34). Learn it as Gandhi's early satyagrahas → 1919 (Act, Rowlatt, Jallianwala) → Non-Cooperation → 1922–29 → Civil Disobedience and Round Tables → Andhra → impact.

The Gandhian phase

1. Gandhi's early work

Event	Facts
South Africa (1893–1914)	Fought racial discrimination against Indians; first used satyagraha (1906, against pass laws); Phoenix Settlement (1904), Tolstoy Farm (1910). Returned to India on 9 January 1915 (now Pravasi Bharatiya Divas); Gokhale was his political guru; Sabarmati Ashram (1917).
Champaran (1917)	Bihar; indigo peasants forced under the tinkathia system (3/20 of land under indigo); invited by Rajkumar Shukla; helpers Rajendra Prasad, J.B. Kripalani; India's first civil disobedience; the system was ended.
Ahmedabad (1918)	Cotton mill workers' wage dispute; Gandhi's first hunger strike in India; workers got a 35% raise.
Kheda (1918)	Gujarat; crop failure, peasants asked for remission of land revenue; Gandhi's first non-cooperation; Vallabhbhai Patel joined.

2. 1919: reforms, Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh

- Government of India Act, 1919 (Montagu–Chelmsford): dyarchy in the provinces (transferred subjects like education and health under Indian ministers; reserved subjects like police and finance under the Governor); a bicameral central legislature; separate electorates extended (to Sikhs and others); in force from 1921.
- Rowlatt Act (March 1919): allowed arrest and jail without trial ('no vakil, no dalil, no appeal'). Gandhi called the Rowlatt Satyagraha, an all-India hartal (April 1919), his first nationwide movement.
- Jallianwala Bagh (13 April 1919, Baisakhi): at Amritsar, people met peacefully to protest the arrest of Dr Saifuddin Kitchlew and Dr Satyapal; General Dyer blocked the only exit and fired without warning, killing hundreds (official figure 379). Rabindranath Tagore returned his knighthood; the Hunter Committee inquired; Udham Singh later shot Michael O'Dwyer (London, 1940).

3. Khilafat and Non-Cooperation (1920–22)

Point	Details
Khilafat	Indian Muslims protested Britain's harsh treatment of the Turkish Sultan (Khalifa) after the First World War; leaders Ali brothers (Mohammad Ali, Shaukat Ali), Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan; Gandhi joined it to build Hindu–Muslim unity.
Launch	Approved at the Calcutta special session (September 1920) and confirmed at Nagpur (December 1920), where the Congress goal became swaraj by peaceful and legitimate means and it was reorganised on a linguistic basis (Pradesh Congress Committees).
Programme	Give up titles; boycott government schools, colleges, law courts, councils and foreign cloth; swadeshi, khadi and the charkha; national schools (Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith, Bihar Vidyapith); Tilak Swaraj Fund (₹1 crore); boycott of the Prince of Wales' visit (November 1921).
End	At Chauri Chaura (Gorakhpur, UP), on 5 February 1922, a mob burnt a police station, killing 22 policemen; Gandhi withdrew the movement (Bardoli resolution, 12 February 1922), as violence broke his principle; he was jailed for six years (released 1924). Many leaders felt the withdrawal was a mistake.

4. 1922–1929: between the movements

- Swaraj Party (January 1923): C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru entered councils to oppose from within; the 'no-changers' (Rajagopalachari, Patel) did constructive work. Simon Commission (appointed November 1927, all seven members British) arrived on 3 February 1928 and met 'Simon go back' protests; Lala Lajpat Rai died after a lathi charge at Lahore (1928); in Madras, Tanguturi Prakasam bared his chest before police guns and became 'Andhra Kesari'.
- Nehru Report (August 1928): Motilal Nehru's draft constitution asked for dominion status; Jinnah's Fourteen Points (1929) rejected it. Bardoli Satyagraha (1928) against a revenue rise made Vallabhbhai Patel 'Sardar'. Lahore session (December 1929), president Jawaharlal Nehru, passed the Purna Swaraj (complete independence) resolution; the flag was hoisted on the Ravi (31 December 1929); 26 January 1930 was celebrated as Independence Day.

5. Civil Disobedience (1930–34)

Event	Facts
Dandi March	Gandhi sent 11 demands to Viceroy Irwin; then marched from Sabarmati (12 March 1930) with 78 followers about 385 km to Dandi, and broke the salt law on 6 April 1930. Salt was chosen because it touched every Indian, rich and poor.
Spread	Vedaranyam (C. Rajagopalachari, Tamil Nadu); Dharasana salt works (Sarojini Naidu); North-West Frontier: Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan's Khudai Khidmatgars ('Red Shirts'), the Qissa Khwani Bazaar firing (Peshawar, April 1930), where Garhwal Rifles soldiers refused to fire; Rani Gaidinliu in the North-East; no-tax and forest satyagrahas; women joined in large numbers; boycott of foreign cloth and liquor shops.

Round Tables and Pact	First RTC (London, November 1930–January 1931): Congress absent. Gandhi–Irwin Pact (5 March 1931): movement suspended, prisoners (not convicted of violence) released, coastal people allowed to make salt for personal use, Congress to attend the next RTC. Karachi session (March 1931), president Vallabhbhai Patel: resolutions on Fundamental Rights and National Economic Programme. Second RTC (September–December 1931): Gandhi the sole Congress delegate; failed over minority representation.
Second phase and after	Movement renewed (January 1932) and crushed by Viceroy Willingdon; Communal Award (August 1932) and Poona Pact (September 1932) (Day 18); Third RTC (November–December 1932): Congress absent; movement withdrawn (1934). These led to the Government of India Act, 1935: provincial autonomy (dyarchy ended in provinces), a proposed All-India Federation (never formed), dyarchy at the Centre; in the 1937 elections the Congress formed ministries in most provinces, including Madras (C. Rajagopalachari; T. Prakasam as revenue minister).

6. The Andhra region

Event	Facts
Bezwada AICC (1921)	The All-India Congress Committee met at Bezwada (Vijayawada), 31 March–1 April 1921; Pingali Venkayya presented a design for a national flag to Gandhi; the target of one crore members and ₹1 crore was set.
Chirala-Perala (1921)	Against heavy municipal taxes, people led by Duggirala Gopalakrishnayya ('Andhra Ratna') left the town and lived in a camp called Ramnagar.

POLITY · Unitary and federal features of the Constitution

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? In a federation (like the USA), power is divided by the Constitution between a national government and regional governments, and neither can take away the other's powers on its own. In a unitary state (like the UK), the national government holds all power and may delegate some. India's Constitution never uses the word 'federation'; Art 1 calls India a 'Union of States'. Dr Ambedkar explained why: the Union is not the result of an agreement among States, and no State can leave it. India has federal features but a strong unitary bias, especially in emergencies. Learn it as federal features → unitary features → how scholars describe India → special arrangements (asymmetric federalism) → court rulings.

Federal or unitary?

Federal features	Unitary (non-federal) features
Dual polity: Union and State governments	Strong Centre: longer Union List, residuary powers with the Centre
Written Constitution, the supreme law	States not indestructible: Parliament can change their area, boundaries and names (Art 3) without their consent
Division of powers in three lists	Single Constitution for Union and States; single citizenship
Rigid: federal provisions need ratification by half the States	Flexible: most of the Constitution can be amended by Parliament alone
Independent judiciary to settle Union–State disputes (Art 131)	Emergency provisions (Arts 352, 356, 360) can turn the system unitary
Bicameralism: the Rajya Sabha represents the States	Unequal representation of States in the Rajya Sabha (by population, unlike the US Senate)
	Governor appointed by the Centre; reservation of State Bills for the President (Art 200, 201)
	Integrated judiciary, All-India Services, single Election Commission and CAG; Parliament's power over the State List (Arts 249–253); Centre's directions to States (Arts 256, 257)

How scholars describe Indian federalism

Scholar	Description
K.C. Wheare	'Quasi-federal': a unitary state with subsidiary federal features
Ivor Jennings	'A federation with a strong centralising tendency'
Granville Austin	'Cooperative federalism'
Morris-Jones	'Bargaining federalism'
Dr Ambedkar	Federal in normal times, unitary in emergencies; an 'indestructible union of destructible States'

- 'Holding together' federation: India's federation was formed by dividing a unitary British India into States, not by independent States coming together (as in the USA). That is why the Centre is stronger.
- Asymmetric federalism: some States have special provisions: Art 371 (Maharashtra, Gujarat), 371A (Nagaland), 371D (Andhra Pradesh and Telangana: equitable opportunities in public employment and education for different parts of the State through local cadres and zones; 32nd Amendment, 1973), 371E (a Central University in Andhra Pradesh), 371J (Hyderabad-Karnataka region); Fifth and Sixth Schedules for tribal areas.

- Court rulings: State of West Bengal v Union of India (1963): the Constitution is not truly federal; S.R. Bommai (1994): federalism is a basic feature; Kuldip Nayar (2006): removing the domicile rule for Rajya Sabha members did not violate federalism; Government of NCT of Delhi cases (2018, 2023) spoke of 'asymmetric federalism' and elected-government control over services.

EXAM TRAP

Art 1 'Union of States'; Ambedkar: no agreement, no right to secede; federal: dual polity, written, division of powers, rigid (half States), independent judiciary (Art 131), bicameral; unitary: strong Centre, residuary, Art 3, single Constitution and citizenship, flexible, emergencies, unequal Rajya Sabha, Governor, Art 200–201, integrated judiciary, AIS, EC, CAG, Arts 249–253, 256–257; Wheare quasi-federal; Jennings centralising; Austin cooperative; Morris-Jones bargaining; holding-together; 371D (AP, Telangana; 32nd Amendment 1973), 371E; West Bengal 1963, Bommai 1994, Kuldip Nayar 2006.
