HISTORY · Harshavardhana and his achievements; Ancient art and architecture

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? Harshavardhana (606–647 CE) was the last great Hindu king of north India before the Rajput age and the Turkish invasions. After the Guptas fell (Day 5), north India split into small states. Harsha joined many of them again, but his empire was a loose union of friendly and subordinate kings that broke up when he died. We know him unusually well because we have both a court biography and a foreigner's eyewitness account. In the second half of today we also learn ancient Indian art and architecture from the Indus cities to the Guptas, because exam questions often ask 'which monument belongs to which period'.

PART A · Harshavardhana

1. Sources

Source	What it tells
Harshacharita (Banabhatta)	Biography of Harsha by his court poet; also Kadambari by Banabhatta.
Si-yu-ki (Xuanzang / Hiuen Tsang)	Chinese Buddhist pilgrim, in India c. 630–644 CE; studied at Nalanda under Shilabhadra; called 'prince of pilgrims'. Describes administration, castes, Kanauj assembly.
Harsha's own works	Sanskrit plays Ratnavali, Priyadarshika and Nagananda.
Inscriptions and plates	Aihole inscription (Ravikirti, Chalukya, 634 CE) on Harsha's defeat; Madhuban and Banskhera copper plates (Banskhera bears Harsha's signature).

2. His rise and conquests

- Family: the Pushyabhuti (Vardhana) dynasty of Thanesar (Haryana). Father Prabhakaravardhana (Maharajadhiraja), mother Yashomati, elder brother Rajyavardhana, sister Rajyashri.
- 606 CE: Rajyashri's husband, the Maukhari king Grahavarman of Kanauj, was killed by the Malwa king Devagupta; Rajyavardhana avenged but was murdered by Shashanka of Gauda (Bengal). Harsha, aged 16, became king and started the Harsha era (606 CE).
- He rescued Rajyashri (who was about to commit sati) and ruled both Thanesar and Kanauj, moving his capital to Kanauj. Titles: Shiladitya, Rajaputra.
- Allies and conquests: friendship with Bhaskaravarman of Kamarupa (Assam) against Shashanka; he won parts of Punjab, Bihar, Bengal and Orissa, and Valabhi (Gujarat) accepted him (Dhruvasena II married Harsha's daughter); his sway reached from Punjab to Orissa (Ganjam).

- Defeat: around 618–619 CE Pulakeshin II (Chalukya of Badami) stopped him on the Narmada; Harsha could not go south. The Aihole inscription records it. Harsha's southern boundary was the Narmada.
- 647 CE: died without an heir; minister Arunashva (Arjuna) seized the throne and the empire broke up. (Kanauj later became the prize of the Tripartite Struggle.)

3. Politics · Society · Economy · Religion of Harsha's age

Area	Harsha's period
Politics	King himself active and travelling (the camp, skandhavara); officers: Mahasandhivigrahadhikrita (war and peace), Senapati, Mahapratihara (palace), Dutaka. Divisions Bhukti → Vishaya → Pathaka → Grama. Feudal tendency: ministers and officials were paid by land grants (Xuanzang), not cash, and feudatories (Samantas) kept their own armies. Revenue: one-sixth of produce; few taxes; forced labour was light. Revenue was divided into four parts: king's expenses, scholars, officials, religious gifts. Harsha toured to see the people.
Society	Four varnas (Brahmin, Kshatriya, Vaishya, Shudra) plus many mixed castes; Shudras mostly cultivators (Xuanzang); outcastes (butchers, scavengers) lived outside towns; some women (Rajyashri) took part in public life, but the practice of sati and purdah-like seclusion were known; Xuanzang praised honesty but also noted harsh punishments and the trial by ordeal.
Economy	Agriculture main; fewer coins and less trade than Gupta age, towns declined (Xuanzang saw many ruined towns, though Kanauj was rich); more land grants to Brahmins, monasteries and officials; Nalanda supported by the revenue of 100 villages.
Religion	Harsha first worshipped Shiva and the Sun (his family were Shaiva and Surya devotees), later became a Mahayana Buddhist under Xuanzang's influence, but supported all faiths. Kanauj assembly (643 CE) in Xuanzang's honour; Prayag Mahamoksha Parishad every five years where he gave away all his wealth (except the royal clothes). He built stupas, monasteries and rest houses; Nalanda was at its peak.
Literature	Court poets Banabhatta, Mayura (Surya Shataka), Divakara; Harsha's plays; scholars of Nalanda: Shilabhadra, Dharmapala.

EXAM TRAP

Harsha era 606 CE; capital Thanesar → Kanauj; defeated by Pulakeshin II on the Narmada (Aihole, Ravikirti); Banabhatta = Harshacharita; Xuanzang = Si-yu-ki, studied at Nalanda; Kanauj assembly 643, Prayag every 5 years; officials paid in land; Harsha the last Hindu emperor of north India (traditional phrase); Shashanka (Gauda) was a Shaiva who persecuted Buddhists (Bodhi tree cut).

PART B · Ancient Indian art and architecture (up to the Guptas)

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

Why learn it as a story? Art follows patronage: who paid, and for what faith. Cities and trade built the Indus art; the Mauryan state built polished stone pillars; Buddhism spread stupas and caves; the Kushans and Satavahanas gave us regional schools; the Guptas gave the first stone and brick temples. Learn the order, then one example for each.

Period	Features	Examples
Indus (c. 2600–1900 BCE)	Town planning (grid, drains), brick; seals (steatite, unicorn bull); bronze casting by the lost-wax method; terracotta; no big temples.	Great Bath, granary (Harappa, Mohenjodaro); Dancing Girl (bronze); Priest-King; Lothal dockyard.
Mauryan court art (322–185 BCE)	Monolithic sandstone pillars (Chunar) with a mirror-like Mauryan polish; animal capitals; stupas; Barabar and Nagarjuni caves (cut for Ajivikas, with polished interiors); Pataliputra palace and Kumrahar pillared hall (Persian influence).	Sarnath Lion Capital (national emblem), Rampurva bull, Lauriya-Nandangarh; Lomas Rishi cave; Dhauli elephant.
Mauryan popular art	Local sculpture in sandstone and terracotta, expressing folk belief: yakshas and yakshis.	Didarganj Yakshi (polished), Parkham Yaksha (Mathura), Besnagar yakshi.
Sunga–Satavahana (2nd c. BCE–3rd c. CE)	Stupas grow bigger with railings (vedika) and carved gateways (toranas); stories (Jataka) told in stone; Buddha shown by symbols (wheel, footprints, empty throne, bodhi tree), not in human form (Hinayana phase).	Bharhut (Sunga), Sanchi Stupa 1 (toranas added in Satavahana period), Amaravati and Nagarjunakonda, Bhattiprolu, Jaggayyapeta (Andhra), Bodh Gaya railing.
Rock-cut caves	Chaitya = prayer hall with a stupa at the end; vihara = monks' residence with cells around a hall. Early caves (Hinayana) carved like wood; later (Mahayana) have Buddha images.	Karle (largest and best chaitya), Bhaja, Kondane, Ajanta, Ellora, Kanheri, Nasik.
Kushan: Gandhara school (1st–5th c. CE)	Greco-Roman (Hellenistic) influence on a Buddhist theme; grey schist and stucco; Buddha with wavy hair, moustache, heavy drapery, realistic body; Taxila, Peshawar; patronised by Kanishka.	Standing Buddha (Tokyo), Bamiyan.
Kushan: Mathura school	Indigenous, in spotted red sandstone; Buddha with a muscular body, smiling face, shaven head, dharmachakra on palm; also Jain and Hindu images; Kanishka's headless statue.	Seated Buddha of Katra, Kanishka statue.
Amaravati school (c. 2nd c. BCE–3rd c. CE)	Krishna valley, Andhra; white marble (Palnadu limestone); flowing, graceful, narrative reliefs and drum slabs; patrons Satavahanas and Ikshvakus.	Amaravati Mahachaitya, Nagarjunakonda.
Gupta (4th–6th c. CE)	Classical calm, simple and graceful; first structural temples (see Day 5); Sarnath Buddha, Ajanta frescoes, iron pillar.	Deogarh, Bhitargaon, Udayagiri.

The stupa: what it is and its parts

A stupa is a solid dome that holds the relics of the Buddha or a monk (it began as a burial mound). The people walk around it clockwise for worship. It has no inside room. Chaitya is the hall for prayer, vihara is the monastery.

Parts of a Buddhist stupa

EXAM TRAP

Mauryan polish and the Lion Capital; Barabar caves for Ajivikas; Karle = largest chaitya; Gandhara = grey schist + Greek; Mathura = red sandstone + indigenous; Amaravati = white marble, Andhra; Buddha shown by symbols before the Kushans, in human form from the Kushan period; Sanchi toranas = Satavahana; Sarnath Buddha = Gupta; Gupta temples are the first structural stone/brick temples (earlier all rock-cut).

POLITY · Directive Principles and their relationship with Fundamental Rights

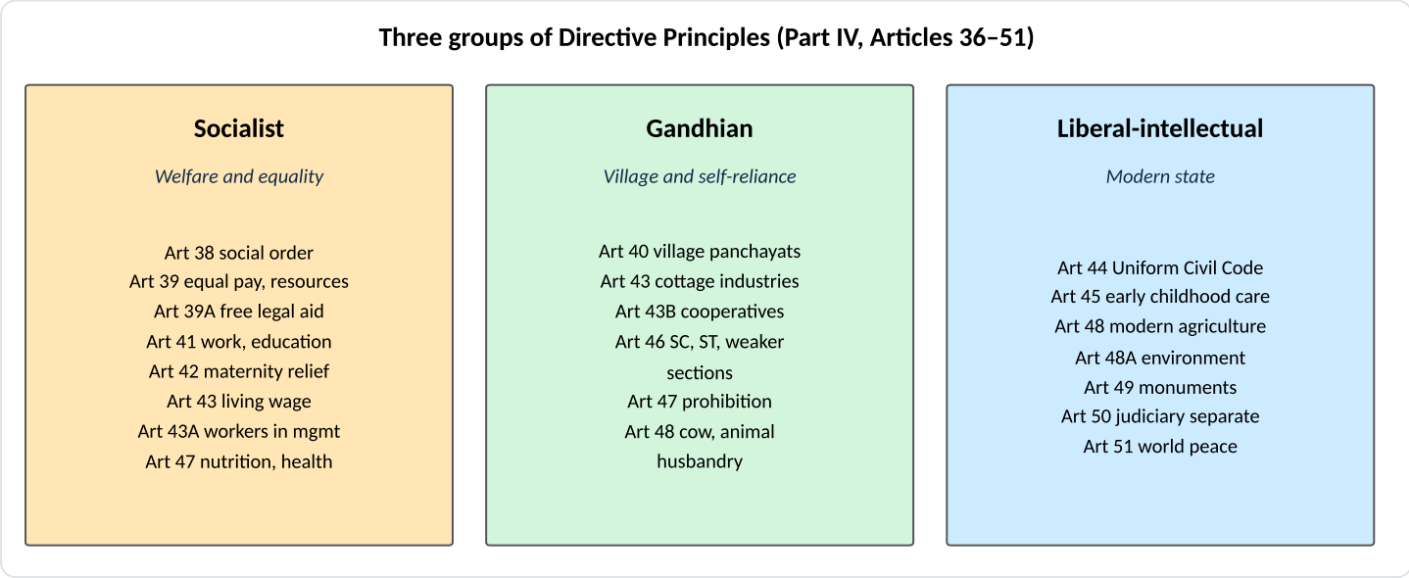

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? Fundamental Rights (Day 4–5) tell the State what it must not do to you. Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP) tell the State what it should do for you: build a welfare state with social and economic justice. They are in Part IV (Articles 36–51), borrowed from the Irish Constitution, which took the idea from Spain. Granville Austin called FRs and DPSPs the 'conscience of the Constitution' and Dr. Ambedkar called DPSP a 'novel feature'. Why needed? Political freedom is empty without food, work and education.

1. Nature

- Art 36: 'State' has the same meaning as in Part III. Art 37: they are not enforceable by any court, yet are fundamental in the governance of the country, and it is the duty of the State to apply them in making laws.
- They are positive directions to the legislature and executive; they give moral and political (not legal) force; the people judge governments by them at elections.
- They aim at social and economic democracy (FRs give political democracy). Courts use them to interpret laws and to test whether a restriction on a right is reasonable.

2. The Articles and the three groups

Directive Principles: three groups

Article	Subject	Note
38	Social order for the promotion of welfare; minimise inequalities in income, status, facilities	38(2) added by the 44th Amendment
39	(a) adequate means of livelihood; (b) ownership and control of resources for the common good; (c) no concentration of wealth; (d) equal pay for equal work for men and women; (e) health of workers and children; (f) opportunities for children to develop in freedom and dignity	39(b),(c) are protected by Art 31C
39A	Equal justice and free legal aid	42nd Amendment (1976); Legal Services Authorities Act 1987
40	Organise village panchayats with powers of self-government	Gandhian; 73rd Amendment (1992) gave Part IX
41	Right to work, education and public assistance (old age, sickness, disability)	MGNREGA 2005 relates to this

42, 43, 43A, 43B	42: just and humane work conditions, maternity relief. 43: living wage, cottage industries. 43A: workers' participation in management. 43B: cooperative societies	43A: 42nd Amendment; 43B: 97th Amendment (2011)
44	Uniform Civil Code for all citizens	Shah Bano (1985), Sarla Mudgal (1995); Goa has a common civil code
45	Early childhood care and education for children below 6	Changed by 86th Amendment (2002) (older text: free education up to 14, now Art 21A)
46	Promote educational and economic interests of SCs, STs and weaker sections	Gandhian
47	Raise nutrition, standard of living, public health; prohibition of intoxicating drinks	Duty of State, listed under both socialist and Gandhian
48, 48A	48: modern agriculture and animal husbandry; ban on cow slaughter. 48A: protect and improve environment, forests, wildlife	48A added by 42nd Amendment
49, 50, 51	49: protect monuments of national importance. 50: separate judiciary from executive. 51: promote international peace, honour treaties, arbitration	Liberal-intellectual

Outside Part IV: Art 335 (claims of SCs and STs to services), Art 350A (instruction in the mother tongue at the primary stage), Art 351 (development of Hindi) are also directive in nature. Fundamental Duties (Part IVA, Art 51A) were added by the 42nd Amendment on the Swaran Singh Committee advice; there are 11 duties (the 11th, to educate children aged 6–14, added by the 86th Amendment 2002).

3. DPSP versus Fundamental Rights

Point	Fundamental Rights	Directive Principles
Source	USA (Bill of Rights)	Ireland
Nature	Negative: limit the State	Positive: direct the State to act
Enforceable?	Justiciable (courts enforce, Art 32)	Non-justiciable (Art 37)
Aim	Political democracy	Social and economic democracy, welfare state
Who gets them	Individuals (some citizens only, some all persons)	The society as a whole
Sanction	Legal; violation can be challenged	Moral and political

Suspension	Can be suspended in emergency (except Arts 20, 21)	Not suspended

4. The conflict and how the courts settled it

Year / case or law	Holding
State of Madras v. Champakam Dorairajan (1951)	FRs prevail over DPSP; DPSP must run as a subsidiary to FRs. Parliament can still amend FRs to implement DPSP (First Amendment).
Golaknath (1967)	Parliament cannot amend FRs at all (later overruled).
25th Amendment (1971) – Art 31C	Laws made to carry out Art 39(b) and (c) cannot be challenged for violating Arts 14, 19; courts cannot question them if they say they give effect to these.
Kesavananda Bharati (1973)	Basic structure doctrine; the first part of Art 31C upheld, the part barring judicial review struck down.
42nd Amendment (1976)	Extended Art 31C to all DPSPs (they would prevail over Arts 14, 19, 31).
Minerva Mills (1980)	Struck down that extension; harmony and balance between FRs and DPSPs is part of the basic structure. FRs and DPSPs are the 'two wheels of a chariot'; neither is absolute.
Unni Krishnan (1993) and later	Court read DPSPs into FRs: right to education (Art 21), then Art 21A (2002); environment, health and legal aid through Art 21.

EXAMPLE

DPSPs turned into laws: abolition of zamindari, Minimum Wages Act, Equal Remuneration Act 1976 (Art 39d), 73rd and 74th Amendments (Art 40), Legal Services Authorities Act 1987 (39A), Environment Protection Act 1986 (48A), RTE Act 2009, MGNREGA 2005 and National Food Security Act 2013 (41, 47), Maternity Benefit Act (42).

EXAM TRAP

Part IV = Arts 36–51; Irish source; Art 37 non-justiciable. Art 40 panchayats (Gandhian), Art 44 UCC (liberal-intellectual), 39A and 43A: 42nd Amendment, 43B: 97th, 45 changed by 86th, 38(2): 44th. Cases: Champakam (FR over DPSP), Kesavananda (31C part), Minerva Mills (harmony, 42nd Amendment extension struck).

C. 2, 3 and 4 only

D. 1, 2, 3 and 4

Answer: A. Article 40 is a Gandhian principle.

PRACTICE

Match List-I (Article) with List-II (subject):

List-I (Article)	List-II (subject)
A. Article 40	1. Uniform Civil Code
B. Article 41	2. Village panchayats
C. Article 44	3. Right to work, education, public assistance
D. Article 50	4. Separation of judiciary from executive

(1) A → 2 B → 3 C → 1 D → 4

(2) A → 3 B → 2 C → 1 D → 4

(3) A → 2 B → 3 C → 4 D → 1

(4) A → 2 B → 1 C → 3 D → 4

Answer: (1) 40 panchayats; 41 work and education; 44 UCC; 50 separation of judiciary.

PRACTICE

Which one of the following statements is NOT correct?

A. In Champakam Dorairajan (1951) the Court held that Fundamental Rights prevail over Directive Principles.

B. In Kesavananda Bharati (1973) the Court upheld the first part of Article 31C.

C. In Minerva Mills (1980) the Court held that harmony between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles is part of the basic structure.

D. In Minerva Mills (1980) the Court upheld the 42nd Amendment's extension of Article 31C to all Directive Principles.

Answer: D. Minerva Mills struck down that extension.

PRACTICE

Assertion (A): The Supreme Court has held that harmony between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles is part of the basic structure.
Reason (R): The 42nd Amendment (1976) gave all Directive Principles precedence over Articles 14 and 19.
Choose the correct answer:

A. Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A

B. Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A

C. A is true but R is false

D. A is false but R is true

PRACTICE

A petitioner asks the High Court to direct the Government to enact a Uniform Civil Code, citing Article 44. What is the most likely response of the court?

A. Direct the Government to enact it within a year

B. Decline to order, as Directive Principles are not enforceable by courts and law-making is for the legislature

C. Strike down all personal laws immediately

D. Issue a writ of quo warranto

Answer: B. Art 37 makes DPSPs non-justiciable; courts can comment but cannot compel legislation.

RECALL BOX: CLOSE THE NOTES AND WRITE THESE IN YOUR OWN WORDS

1. Write Arts 36–51 in the three groups. 2. Write the FR vs DPSP table (6 points). 3. Write the cases in order with one line each (Champakam to Minerva Mills) and the amendments named in this topic.

REASONING · Statement and assumptions

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? A statement is given, with some assumptions. An assumption is something the speaker takes for granted without saying it: an idea that must be true for the statement to make sense. You must decide which assumptions are implicit (hidden in the statement). Test (negation test): deny the assumption; if the statement then loses its meaning or becomes pointless, the assumption is implicit.

Rule	Meaning	Example
1. Not a fact already stated	Repeating the statement is not an assumption.	'Buses are late' → 'Buses are late' ✗
2. Not a conclusion	What follows from the statement is not what lies behind it.	'Many will come' as a result ✗
3. Extreme words are usually wrong	all, only, always, never, none, best, every go beyond the statement.	'Only this works' ✗
4. No outside knowledge	Use only what the statement needs; do not bring your own facts.	—
5. It must support the statement	It should be a necessary base: people believe the action works, can be done, and has some purpose.	'Use app X' → people can use apps ✓

EXAMPLE

Worked example: Statement: 'Apply online for your certificate; do not visit the office.' Assumption I: Most applicants can use the internet. Deny it: if nobody can go online, the advice is pointless, so I is implicit. Assumption II: Offices will be closed. Not needed for the advice, so not implicit. Answer: Only I. Typical patterns: advice or order (assumes it can be followed and will help), advertisement (assumes people want and believe it), a decision or plan (assumes it is possible and useful), a comparison (assumes the other is worse or different).

EXAM TRAP

Assumption ≠ conclusion ≠ fact in the statement. Statements with 'only', 'all', 'always' in the assumption are usually wrong. Do not stop at the first assumption: check each one separately. Answer options: only I, only II, either, neither, both.

Test yourself: 5 questions (tap an option to see the answer)

PRACTICE

Statement: 'The government has increased the minimum support price for paddy to encourage farmers to grow more.'
Assumptions:
I. A higher price will attract farmers to grow more paddy.
II. Farmers at present grow no paddy.
Which of the assumptions is/are implicit?

A. Only I

B. Only II

C. Both I and II

D. Neither I nor II

Answer: A. I is the base of the move; II contradicts 'grow more' (they already grow some).

PRACTICE

Statement: 'The municipality has banned the sale of single-use plastic bags from 1 January and will fine violators.'
Assumptions:
I. Alternatives to plastic bags are available.
II. The fine will discourage violators.
III. All plastic is harmful.
Which of the assumptions are implicit?

A. I and II only

B. II and III only

C. I and III only

D. I, II and III

Answer: A. III is too extreme ('all plastic'); the ban concerns single-use bags only.

PRACTICE

Statement: 'An advertisement says: Drink our health drink for 30 days and see the difference.'
Assumptions:
I. People consider a month enough to judge a product.
II. People want the benefit that the drink promises.

III. No other drink gives such a benefit.

Which of the assumptions are implicit?

A. I and II only

B. II and III only

C. I and III only

D. I, II and III

Answer: A. The ad needs a believable trial period and a wanted benefit; III is not needed (and 'no other' is extreme).

PRACTICE

Statement: 'Education should be made free up to Class 12 in government schools.'

Assumptions:

I. Cost is a barrier to schooling for some students.

II. The government can bear the cost.

III. Every child will attend school if it is free.

Which of the assumptions are implicit?

A. I and II only

B. II and III only

C. I and III only

D. I, II and III

Answer: A. III says 'every', which is more than the statement needs.

PRACTICE

Statement: 'Rani: You should join the Sunrise coaching centre, since it has the best faculty in the city.'

Assumptions:

I. Good faculty helps in preparation.

II. Rani knows about other centres.

III. All other centres have poor faculty.

Which of the assumptions is/are implicit?

A. Only I

B. I and II only

C. II and III only

D. All of I, II and III

Answer: A. I is the base of the advice. II is not needed and III is extreme: 'best' does not mean all others are poor.

RECALL BOX: CLOSE THE NOTES AND WRITE THESE IN YOUR OWN WORDS

1. Write the definition and the negation test. 2. Write the 5 rules with one example each. 3. Make 2 statements of your own (an advice and an advertisement) with one implicit and one non-implicit assumption each.
