HISTORY · The Cholas: administrative system

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

What is it? The Cholas ruled much of South India from about 850 to 1279 CE. At their peak (Rajaraja I and Rajendra I) they ruled the Tamil country, parts of Andhra and Karnataka, Sri Lanka, and sent a fleet across the sea to South-East Asia. Why study them? They gave India its best-documented village self-government (Uttaramerur), a clear revenue and land system, a powerful navy, and the great Dravida temples. Learn them as Sources → Rulers → Administration → Politics · Society · Economy · Religion → Art and literature → Decline.

1. Sources

Source	What it tells
Inscriptions	Uttaramerur (village assembly, Parantaka I), Tanjore temple walls (Rajaraja I's gifts and accounts), Thiruvalangadu (Rajendra I) and Anbil copper plates, Meykirtis (the praise-introductions of kings).
Literature	Kalingattuparani (Jayamkondar, Kulottunga I's Kalinga war), Periyapuranam (Sekkizhar), Kamban's Ramavataram, Tirumurai (collected by Nambiyandar Nambi), Pugazhendi, Ottakuttan.

2. The rulers, in order

Aditya I	c. 871–907	Defeated the Pallava king Aparajita and ended Pallava power; Chola power spread to Tondaimandalam.
Parantaka I	c. 907–955	Took Madurai (Madurai konda), defeated in the Battle of Takkolam (949) by Rashtrakuta Krishna III. His Uttaramerur inscriptions (919, 921) describe village self-government.

		CE); built the Brihadisvara (Rajarajeshvara) temple, Thanjavur (1010); allowed a Buddhist vihara at Nagapattinam; titles Mummudi Chola, Jayankonda.

Kulottunga I	1070–1122	Son of the Eastern Chalukya prince of Vengi (Rajaraja Narendra) and Chola princess Ammangadevi; united Vengi and Chola, so the line is called Chalukya-Chola; abolished tolls (Sungam tavirtta Chola); Kalinga wars (Karunakara Tondaiman).
Later Cholas	1122–1279	Vikrama Chola, Kulottunga II (Nataraja shrine at Chidambaram), Rajaraja II (Darasuram), Kulottunga III, last Rajendra III; defeated by the Pandya Jatavarman Sundara (c. 1279) and pressed by the Hoysalas.

3. The administrative system

The king was the head of everything, hereditary, the Yuvaraja was often named while the king lived. He was advised by a council of officers (perundanam = high officers, sirutanam = lower officers) and royal orders (olai) were written by the olai-nayakam and approved by the Oluvai (secretary). He toured and heard petitions. The state was a mix of centralised control of revenue and army and local autonomy in villages.

Chola territorial administration

Unit	Details
Mandalam	Province under a royal prince or viceroy; about 8 to 9 mandalams in the empire.
Valanadu → Nadu → Kurram / Kottam	Mandalams were divided into valanadus, these into nadus (each with a council of local landowners, the Nattar) and then into groups of villages (kurram).

Ur, Sabha, Nagaram	Ur = general village assembly (all taxpaying landholders); Sabha / Mahasabha = assembly of Brahmin (brahmadeya) villages; Nagaram = assembly of merchants in trading towns.

Village self-government: Uttaramerur

The Uttaramerur inscriptions (Parantaka I, 919 and 921 CE) record how a Sabha was chosen. The village was divided into 30 wards (kudumbu). Qualifications: age 35 to 70; owner of tax-paying land (more than about a quarter veli) and a house on own site; knowledge of the Vedas/mantras; honest. Disqualified: those who had served on a committee in the previous three years, those who had not submitted accounts, those guilty of sins/crimes, and close relatives of a candidate. Method: names of eligible people were written on palm leaves and put in a pot; a young boy drew one ticket per ward (kudavolai = pot-ticket system, a form of lottery). Members served one year (360 days). The members formed committees (variyams): Samvatsara variyam (annual), Eri variyam (tanks), Totta variyam (gardens), Pon variyam (gold), etc. Members were called variyaperumakkal.

Revenue, land, army, justice

Army and navy	Large standing army of infantry, cavalry, elephants; royal bodyguards (Velaikkarar, Kaikkolar); a strong navy made the Bay of Bengal a 'Chola lake'.
Justice	Village assemblies settled most cases; the king was the final court; temples kept records.

4. Politics · Society · Economy · Religion of the Cholas

Area	Chola period
Politics	Strong monarchy with local self-government; vassals (Samanta); marriage alliances (Vengi); an overseas navy; the king worshipped as the earthly form of the temple deity.
Society	Caste was strong: Brahmins and landowners (Vellalas) on top; the artisan and trader groups formed Valangai (right-hand) and Idangai (left-hand) divisions, who often quarrelled; devadasis attached to temples; slaves existed; Brahmadeya villages were tax-free.
Economy	Agriculture on the Kaveri delta with tanks and canals (Rajendra built the Cholagangam tank at Gangaikonda Cholapuram); guilds: Manigramam, Ayyavole (Ainnurruvar), Nanadesi, Valanjiyar; trade with China, Sri Lanka, South-East Asia; Nagapattinam, Kaveripattinam ports; textiles of Kanchi; temples were the largest landlords, banks and employers.

Art, architecture, literature	Dravida style: tall vimana over the sanctum, later gopuram; Brihadisvara (Thanjavur), Gangaikonda Cholapuram, Airavateshvara (Darasuram), Nageshwara (Kumbakonam): UNESCO 'Great Living Chola Temples'. Chola bronzes by the lost-wax method, above all Nataraja. Literature: Kamban (Ramavataram), Sekkizhar, Jayamkondar, Buddhamitra (Virasoliyam), Tolamozhi Devar (Sulamani).

POLITY · Fundamental Duties; Amendment of the Constitution

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

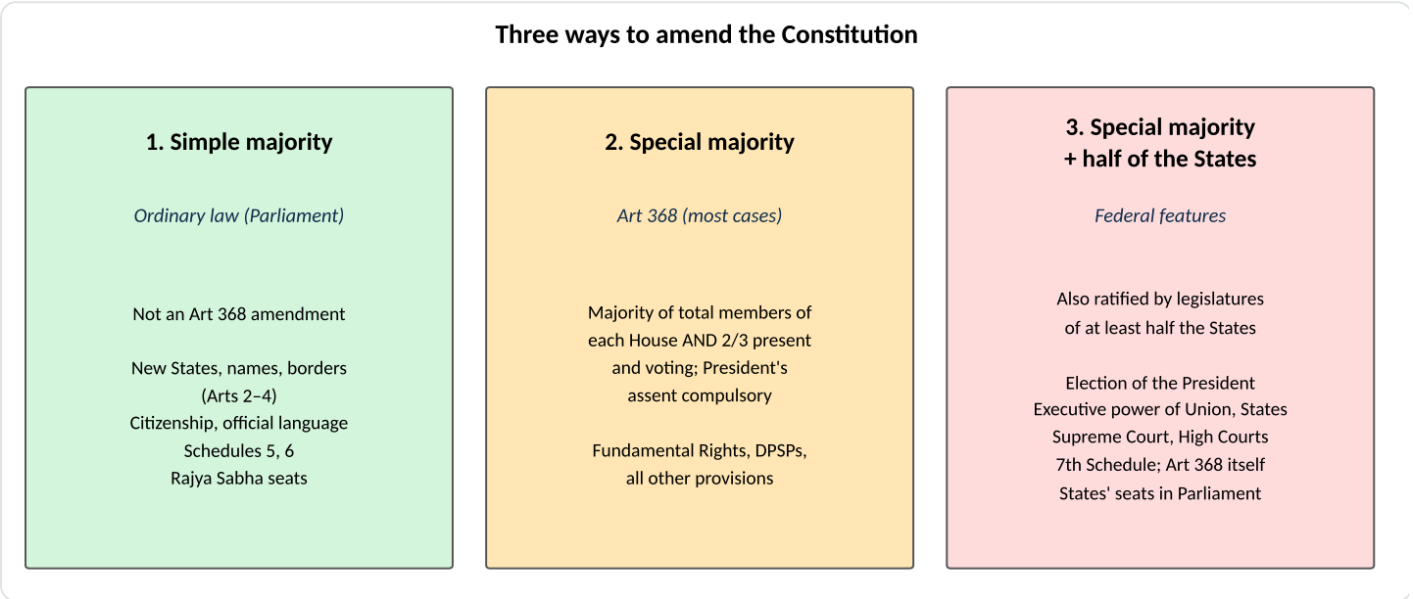

What is it? Rights come with responsibilities. Fundamental Duties remind citizens what they owe to the nation. The amendment procedure shows how a living Constitution changes while its core stays safe. It is neither as rigid as the American one nor as flexible as the British one: a mix.

1. Fundamental Duties (Part IVA, Article 51A)

- Source: the USSR Constitution. Added by the 42nd Amendment (1976) on the recommendation of the Swaran Singh Committee, during the Emergency; 10 duties at first, the 11th added by the 86th Amendment (2002).
- They apply to citizens only (not foreigners) and are non-justiciable: no court can enforce them and there is no penalty in the Constitution itself, but Parliament can make laws (for example the Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act 1971). The Verma Committee (1999) listed laws that enforce some duties. Courts use them to uphold laws and to read limits on rights.

No.	The duty of every citizen
(a)	To abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals, institutions, the National Flag and National Anthem
(b)	To cherish and follow the noble ideals of the freedom struggle
(c)	To uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India
(d)	To defend the country and render national service when called
(e)	To promote harmony and brotherhood and to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women
(f)	To value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture
(g)	To protect and improve the natural environment (forests, lakes, rivers, wildlife) and have compassion for living creatures
(h)	To develop scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform
(i)	To safeguard public property and to abjure violence
(j)	To strive towards excellence in individual and collective activity
(k)	Parent or guardian to provide opportunities for education to the child aged 6–14 (added by the 86th Amendment 2002)

2. Amendment of the Constitution (Part XX, Article 368)

Three ways to amend

- Who starts: only Parliament (a Bill in either House; not a State legislature). A Bill needs a special majority in each House separately (a majority of the total membership and two-thirds of those present and voting). There is no joint sitting to break a deadlock. The President must give assent (made compulsory by the 24th Amendment, 1971). A State legislature can only ratify, and only in the third category.
- Ratification by half of the State legislatures (a simple majority in each) is needed for: election of the President (Arts 54, 55), the executive power of the Union and States, the Supreme Court and High Courts, distribution of legislative powers and the 7th Schedule, States' representation in Parliament, and Art 368 itself. Example: the 101st Amendment (GST, 2016) was ratified by States.

3. Amendment and the basic structure: the cases

Case / change	Holding
Shankari Prasad (1951), Sajjan Singh (1965)	Parliament can amend any part including FRs (an amendment is not 'law' under Art 13).
Golaknath (1967)	FRs cannot be amended; an amendment is a 'law' under Art 13.
24th Amendment (1971)	Restored Parliament's power; Art 13 does not apply to amendments; President must assent.
Kesavananda Bharati (1973)	Parliament can amend any part but cannot alter the basic structure (13-judge bench, 7:6).
42nd Amendment (1976)	Said no amendment can be questioned in any court.
Minerva Mills (1980)	Struck down that clause: judicial review and limited amending power are part of the basic structure.
Waman Rao (1981), I.R. Coelho (2007)	Amendments after 24 April 1973 (including those putting laws in the Ninth Schedule) can be reviewed for basic structure violation.

4. Important amendments (remember the number and the subject)

Amendment	Subject
1st (1951)	Ninth Schedule added; reasonable restrictions on speech; land reform protected
7th (1956)	Reorganisation of States (A, B, C division ended)
24th, 25th (1971)	24th: power to amend FRs; 25th: Art 31C, right to property curbed
26th (1971)	Abolished privy purses of former rulers
42nd (1976)	'Mini-Constitution': Socialist, Secular, Integrity added to the Preamble; Fundamental Duties; Arts 39A, 43A, 48A
44th (1978)	Right to property removed from FRs (now Art 300A, a legal right); Art 20, 21 not suspended in emergency
52nd (1985)	Anti-defection law, Tenth Schedule
61st (1989)	Voting age reduced from 21 to 18
73rd, 74th (1992)	Panchayats (Part IX, 11th Schedule) and Municipalities (Part IXA, 12th Schedule)
86th (2002)	Art 21A, Art 45 changed, 11th Fundamental Duty
91st (2003)	Council of Ministers limited to 15% of the House; stronger anti-defection

97th (2011)	Cooperative societies: right under Art 19(1)(c), Art 43B, Part IXB
101st (2016)	GST and GST Council (Art 279A)
102nd, 103rd (2018–19)	102nd: constitutional status to National Commission for Backward Classes; 103rd: 10% EWS reservation
104th (2019), 105th (2021), 106th (2023)	104th: SC/ST seats extended to 2030, Anglo-Indian nomination ended; 105th: States' own OBC lists; 106th: one-third reservation for women in Lok Sabha and Assemblies (Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam)

(The numbers are as I know them up to the 106th, 2023. Check the latest list in current affairs for later amendments.)

EXAM TRAP

Fundamental Duties: 42nd Amendment, Swaran Singh, USSR, 11 duties (11th = 86th); citizens only; non-justiciable. Art 368: only Parliament; special majority in each House; no joint sitting; President must assent (24th); half of States for federal matters. Kesavananda 1973 = basic structure; Minerva Mills struck 42nd Amendment's clause. 44th: property right → Art 300A. 73rd/74th (1992), 86th (21A), 97th (cooperatives), 101st (GST), 103rd (EWS), 106th (women).

Test yourself: 5 questions (tap an option to see the answer)

PRACTICE

Consider the following statements about Fundamental Duties:
1. They were added by the 42nd Amendment on the recommendation of the Swaran Singh Committee.
2. There are at present eleven Fundamental Duties.
3. They apply to citizens only.
4. They can be enforced by the courts.
Which of the above are correct?

A. 1, 2 and 3 only

B. 1 and 4 only

C. 2, 3 and 4 only

D. 1, 2, 3 and 4

Answer: A. Duties are non-justiciable, so 4 is wrong.

PRACTICE

Match List-I (Amendment) with List-II (subject):

List-I (Amendment)	List-II (subject)
A. 42nd	1. Fundamental Duties added
B. 44th	2. Right to property removed from Part III
C. 86th	3. Right to education (Art 21A)
D. 97th	4. Right to form cooperative societies made a fundamental right

(1) A → 1 B → 2 C → 3 D → 4

(2) A → 2 B → 1 C → 3 D → 4

(3) A → 1 B → 2 C → 4 D → 3

(4) A → 3 B → 2 C → 1 D → 4

Answer: (1) 42nd: duties; 44th: property right; 86th: Art 21A; 97th: cooperatives.

PRACTICE

Which one of the following statements about the amendment procedure under Article 368 is NOT correct?

A. A Bill to amend the Constitution can be introduced only in Parliament.

B. It needs a special majority in each House separately.

C. A joint sitting can be held to pass it in case of a deadlock.

D. The President must give assent to the Bill.

Answer: C. There is no joint sitting for constitutional amendment Bills.

PRACTICE

Assertion (A): An amendment affecting the election of the President needs ratification by the legislatures of half of the States.
Reason (R): The election of the President involves the elected members of State legislative assemblies, so it touches the federal structure.
Choose the correct answer:

A. Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A

B. Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A

C. A is true but R is false

D. A is false but R is true

Answer: A. Federal matters (President's election, 7th Schedule, courts) need State ratification.

PRACTICE

A Bill changing the representation of States in Parliament is passed in both Houses by a majority of the total membership and two-thirds of members present and voting. Which of the following is correct?

A. It can go to the President for assent only after ratification by the legislatures of at least half of the States

B. It becomes law at once with the President's assent

C. It needs ratification by all the States

D. A joint sitting can pass it without State consent

Answer: A. Representation of States in Parliament is in the third category: special majority plus ratification by half of the States.

RECALL BOX: CLOSE THE NOTES AND WRITE THESE IN YOUR OWN WORDS

1. Write the 11 duties in short. 2. Draw the three amendment methods with examples; write the cases (Shankari Prasad to Minerva Mills). 3. Write 10 amendments with numbers.

REASONING · Statement and argument; statement and conclusion

UNDERSTAND IT FIRST

Two question types. (1) Statement and argument: a question like 'Should X be done?' is given with arguments (Yes / No); decide which are strong and which weak. (2) Statement and conclusion: from the given statement decide which conclusions definitely follow. In both, use only what is given, not your own opinion or outside facts.

Type	Strong / follows	Weak / does not follow
Argument	Important to the question, general (applies to many), direct link, based on facts or public benefit	Personal or one case ('my uncle…'), vague, emotional, copying others ('others do it'), unproved, side issue
Conclusion	Follows directly and definitely from the statement	Needs outside facts, uses extreme words (all, only, never) not in the statement, or is only a guess

EXAMPLE

Either-or rule: if neither conclusion follows alone, and the two contradict each other (for example 'all are raw' and 'some are not raw'), then either I or II follows. If one can be true only when the other is false, they form the pair. Example (argument): 'Should plastic bags be banned?' Argument I: 'Yes, they choke drains and harm animals' is strong (important, general, direct). Argument II: 'No, my neighbour still uses them' is weak (personal).

EXAM TRAP

Do not use your own opinion. Words like 'all', 'only', 'never' make a conclusion too strong. A 'Yes' argument is not strong just because it sounds nice: it must be directly about the question. Options: only I, only II, either, neither, both.

Test yourself: 5 questions (tap an option to see the answer)

PRACTICE

Statement: Should the retirement age of government employees be raised to 62?
Arguments:
I. Yes, experienced employees will serve longer and the pension burden on the government will be eased.
II. No, because my uncle retired at 58 and is happy.
Which of the arguments is/are strong?

A. Only I

B. Only II

C. Both I and II

D. Neither I nor II

Answer: A. I gives general, direct reasons; II is a personal example.

PRACTICE

Statement: All teachers of the school are graduates. Some graduates are sportspersons.
Conclusions:
I. Some teachers are sportspersons.
II. Some sportspersons are graduates.
Which of the conclusions follows?

A. Only I

B. Only II

C. Both I and II

D. Neither I nor II

Answer: B. II is the simple reverse of the second sentence; the sportspersons who are graduates may or may not be teachers, so I does not definitely follow.

PRACTICE

Statement: Only candidates who score above the cut-off in the screening test will be called for the Mains examination.

Conclusions:

I. Candidates who do not score above the cut-off will not be called for Mains.

II. All candidates who appear in the screening test will be called for Mains.

Which of the conclusions follows?

A. Only I

B. Only II

C. Both I and II

D. Neither I nor II

Answer: A. 'Only those above the cut-off' means the rest are not called; II contradicts this.

PRACTICE

Statement: Should the government provide free bicycles to all school girls?

Arguments:

I. Yes, it will make travel easier and increase school attendance of girls.

II. No, the government does not have money.

III. Yes, because it will look good on television.

Which of the arguments are strong?

A. Only I

B. I and II only

C. II and III only

D. I, II and III

Answer: A. I is direct and about the purpose; II is a vague claim without proof; III is a side issue.

PRACTICE

Statement: Some mangoes in the basket are raw.

Conclusions:

I. All the mangoes in the basket are raw.

II. Some mangoes in the basket are not raw.

Which of the following is correct?

A. Only I follows

B. Only II follows

C. Either I or II follows

D. Neither I nor II follows

Answer: C. 'Some are raw' leaves open whether all are raw or some are not; I and II are contradictory and exactly one is true, so either I or II.

RECALL BOX: CLOSE THE NOTES AND WRITE THESE IN YOUR OWN WORDS

1. Write the strong and weak argument tests with one example each. 2. Write how to check a conclusion and the either-or rule. 3. Make a statement of your own with two arguments and two conclusions and label them.
